STUDENTS, TEACHERS TO ATTEND UM FOREIGN LANGUAGE DAYS

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana will host high school students and teachers from across the state during Foreign Language Days, set for Thursday, Feb. 21, and Friday, Feb. 22.

During the annual event, intended to encourage students to continue studying foreign languages in college, students attend classes; watch foreign films; and take in slide shows, cooking demonstrations, panel discussions and presentations on careers in foreign languages.

The teachers attending this year's language fair will be:

Rita Schladweiler and four Spanish students from Lavina High School; Janet Dekmar and six French students from Charlo High School; Damaris Hulbert and 16 French students from Belgrade High School; Cheryl Tailfeathers and 16 French students from Browning High School; Bob Lamb and 22 Spanish students from St. Regis High School; Duane Lincoln and 17 Spanish students from Rudyard's Blue Sky High School; Eileen Driscoll and five Spanish students from Libby Senior High School; and Jacqueline Olson and seven Spanish students from Darby High School.

Also participating will be Sherry Kost and 15 Spanish students from Stevensville High School; Michael Phillips and nine French students from Missoula's Big Sky High School; Diane Clawson and seven German students from Missoula's Valley Christian School; Chris Lindemann and one Spanish student from Willow Creek School; Dee Dee Rains and 16 Spanish and French students from Simms High School; Sheila Herrin and five Spanish students from Hobson Public School; Terrel Jones and two Spanish students from Troy High School; Sharon Christenson and three French students from Philipsburg's Granite County High School; Deborah Kelley and eight Spanish students from Great Falls High School; Susanna Quebedo and 12 Spanish students from St. Ignatius High School; Tom Feeley and seven Latin students from Billings Senior High School; Yvette Majerus and 12 French students from Moore Public School; Ardis Cotton and 20 Spanish students from Deer Lodge High School; and Beryl Strain and 33 German students from Ronan High School.

Columbia Falls High School teachers Susan Vance, D.J. Weatherly and Les Brod will bring a total of 35 students. Vance's and Weatherly's students take Spanish, Brod's German. Susan Hoffeller, Linda Whedbee and Mary Honzel of Helena's Capital High School will bring a total of 61 students. Hoffeller's students take French, Whedbee's and Honzel's Spanish. Vivian Fagerstrom and Carmen Grey of Hamilton High School will bring a total of 18 students. Fagerstrom's students take Spanish; Grey's study German.
